

GI WITH THE BOTTLE.

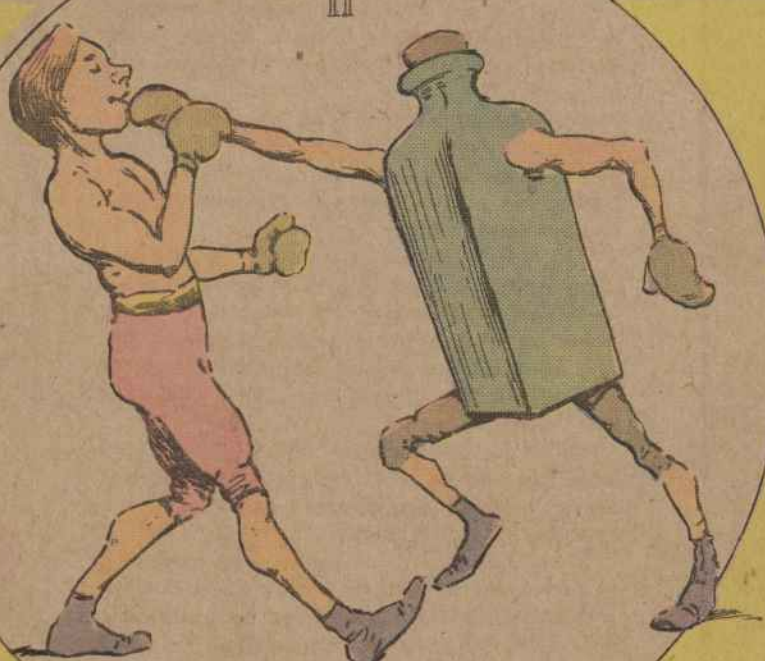

I

Time! Shake hands.

II

A first lead for the mouth is rather pleasant.

III

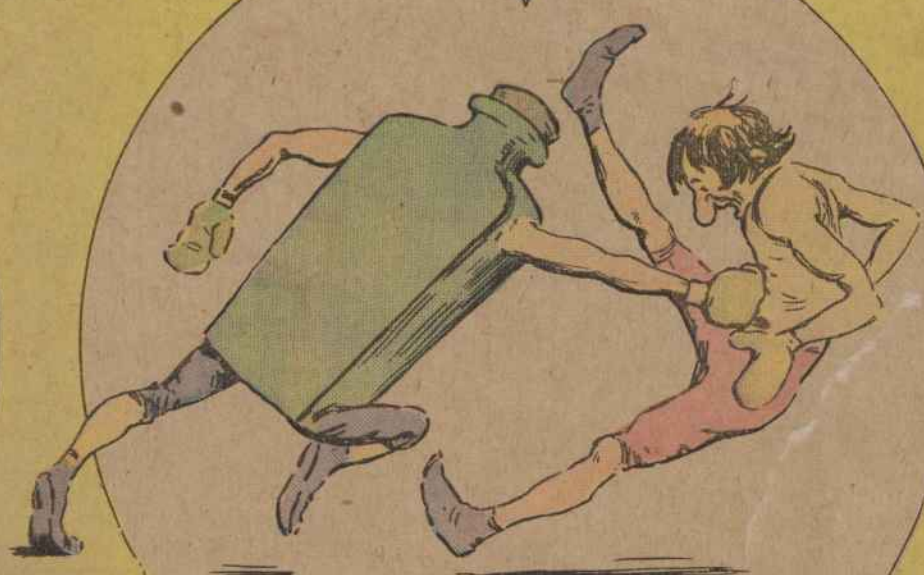

Next the nose is reached. First blood for the bottle.

IV

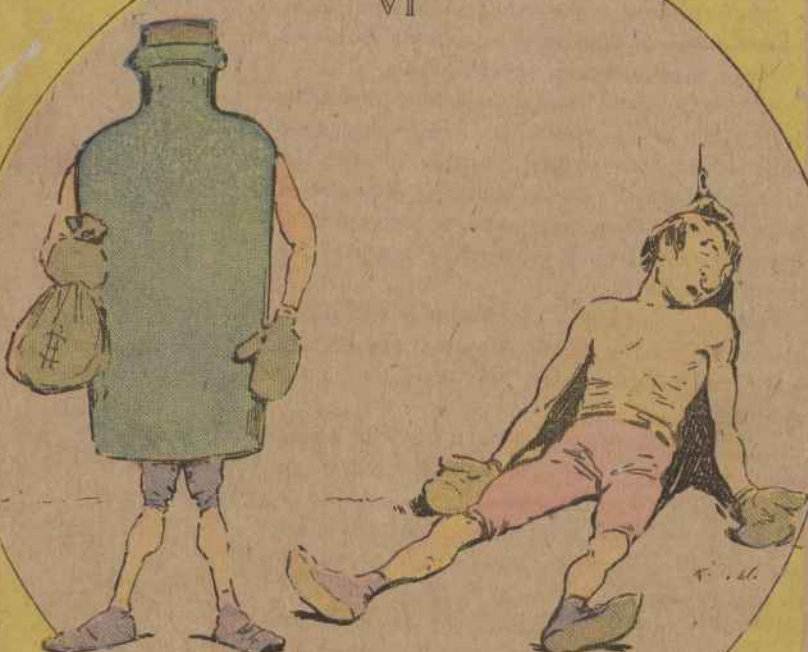

Break away, but not

V

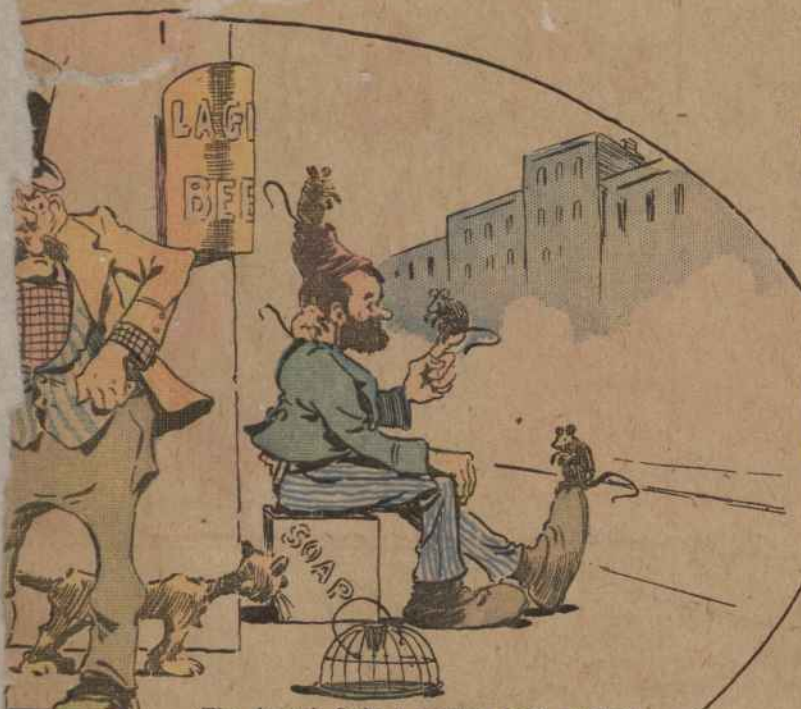

A hard jab for the stomach and heart.

VI

And you're knocked out.

"The deuce! Only a quarter left! Mary's been through my pockets again. I'll fix her!"

HOW HE CURED HIS WIFE OF GOING THROUGH HIS CLOTHES. A TIP FOR HUSBANDS.

2
Mouse Dealer "Yes, sir, very tame, sir. Will hunt all t'rough yer pockets fer a bit of sugar. Tanks"

TAME RAT 2 FOR 2 AIL

much John

Afraid to Risk It.
FARMER'S WIFE (to tramp)—I will give you a good meal if you will work at my woodpile first.
TRAMP (solemnly)—Madam, I am sorry to disoblige, but I was brought up not to work on Sunday, and I read the other day that some mistake had been made in the calendar, and so any day may be Sunday for all I know, and until the thing is cleared up I must decline to labor Didn't Keep It.

ATTORNEY—I'm afraid they'll put you away for safe keeping.
CLIENT—But I can prove that I only broke the safe.

Or Outside.
CARPER—They ought to discontinue these open-air concerts.
SHARPER—Yes, they're played out.

Making Him Useful.
DR SLADE (an Oklahoma druggist)—Ho, Ike, you're just the man I'm looking for! Have you got anything on hand for the next half hour?
ALKALI IKE—Nuthin' partic'lar. Whats wantin'?

In Washington.
OFFICE SEEKER—Have you given up all hope of getting that job?
EX-OFFICE SEEKER (sadly)—Yes, I've just grasped the situation.

Vocation.
PASTORAL VISITOR—And so Bobby's going to be a minister, is he?
BOBBY—Yes, I think I'd like to go to church if I was paid for it.

Tableau!